Scale of assessments for the apportionment of the expenses of the United Nations: programme budget implications of draft resolution A/C.5/53/L.13

Statement submitted by the Secretary-General in accordance with rule 153 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly

Summary

Should the General Assembly adopt draft resolution A/C.5/53/L.13, the convening of a special session of one week's duration in 1999 would require an additional appropriation of $94,800 under section 1A (Overall policy-making, direction and coordination) of the programme budget for the biennium 1998–1999 for the travel of members of the Committee on Contributions who are not resident in New York and for the travel of the Chairman of the Committee to introduce the Committee's report to the Fifth Committee.

98-35530 (E) 161198

A. Requests contained in the draft resolution

1. Under the terms of operative paragraph 2 of draft resolution A/C.5/53/L.13, the General Assembly would request the Committee on Contributions to hold a special session of one week's duration as early as possible in 1999 to consider representations from Member States with respect to the application of Article 19 of the Charter of the United Nations and to report thereon to the General Assembly at its resumed fifty-third session pursuant to rule 160 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly.

B. Activities by which the request would be implemented

2. Should the General Assembly adopt draft resolution A/C.5/53/L.13, the Secretary-General would make the necessary arrangements for a session of the Committee on Contributions of one week's duration in New York early in 1999 to consider representations from Member States with respect to the application of Article 19 of the Charter of the United Nations.

C. Additional requirements for 1998–1999

3. It is estimated that, should the General Assembly adopt draft resolution A/C.5/53/L.13, total additional requirements would amount to $271,800, based on the following assumptions:

(a) There would be 10 meetings of the Committee during the one-week session, with two meetings per day;

(b) Interpretation and documentation would be provided in all languages of the General Assembly;

(c) For the special session of the Committee, there would be 10 documents of 60 pages of pre-session documentation, 1 document of 20 pages of in-session documentation and 1 document of 30 pages of post-session documentation;

(d) Members of the Committee on Contributions that are not resident in New York would be reimbursed for their travel and subsistence costs in connection with their attendance at the Committee's meetings, in accordance with their normal entitlement. Provision would also be made for travel and subsistence of the Chairman of the Committee on Contributions to introduce the Committee's report to the Fifth Committee of the General Assembly.

4. These requirements may be broken down as follows:

	United States dollars
Travel and subsistence of members	94 800
Conference-servicing requirements	177 000
	271 800

D. Conclusions and recommendations

5. No provisions have been made in 1999 under the programme budget for the biennium 1998–1999 for the travel and subsistence for the members of the Committee on Contributions that are not resident in New York, nor for the Chairman of the Committee on Contributions to introduce the Committee's report to the Fifth Committee of the General Assembly. Should the General Assembly adopt draft resolution A/C.5/53/L.13, an additional appropriation would be required under section 1A (Overall policy-making, direction and coordination) of the programme budget for the biennium 1998–1999. In respect of conference-servicing requirements, it is anticipated that the session of the Committee on Contributions would be added to the calendar of conferences. The extent to which the Organization's permanent capacity would need to be supplemented by temporary assistance resources can be determined only in the light of the calendar of conferences for 1998–1999. However, provisions are made under section 1B of the programme budget for 1998-1999, not only for meetings programmed at the time of budget preparation, but also for meetings that would be authorized subsequently, provided that the number and distribution of meetings and conferences are consistent with the pattern of meetings in past years. On this basis, it is not anticipated that additional resources would be required for conference servicing.

6. Should the General Assembly adopt draft resolution A/C.5/53/L.13, an additional appropriation of $94,800 would be required under section 1A (Overall policy-making, direction and coordination) of the programme budget for the biennium 1998–1999.

Programme budget implications of draft resolution A/C.3/53/L.18/Rev.1

Statement submitted by the Secretary-General in accordance with rule 153 of the rules of procedure of the General Assembly

I. Introduction

1. At its 47th meeting, held on 16 November 1998, the Third Committee adopted, without a vote, draft resolution A/C.3/53/L.18/Rev.1, as orally revised. A statement of programme budget implications was before the Committee in document A/C.3/53/L.56.

II. Draft resolution A/C.3/53/L.18/Rev.1

A. Requests contained in the draft resolution

2. In operative paragraph 10 of part I of draft resolution A/C.3/53/L.18/Rev.1, the General Assembly would take note of the decisions 7(53) and 8(53) of the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination regarding organizational matters, would authorize the Secretary-General to extend, on a temporary basis, the Committee's summer sessions in 1999 and 2000 for five working days, and would decide to further consider the two decisions at its fifty-fifth session.

B. Relationship of the requests to the approved programme of work

3. The draft resolution is related to programme 19, Human rights, subprogramme 2, bodies and organs, of the medium-term plan for the period 1998–2001. Related activities are reflected in paragraph 22.48, subparagraphs (i)–(iii), of section 22, Human rights, of the programme budget for the biennium 1998–1999.

C. Activities by which the requests would be implemented

4. Should the General Assembly adopt the draft resolution, the extension of the summer sessions of the Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination would require full meeting servicing and interpretation in five United Nations official languages during five working days, with two meetings a day, or an additional 10 meetings per year. Provisions would also be required to cover the cost of daily subsistence allowance of the 18 members of the Committee for a period of seven days annually.

D. Additional requirements for 1998–1999

5. Should the General Assembly adopt the draft resolution, the programme of work included under section 22, Human rights, of the programme budget for the biennium 1998–1999 would be modified as follows:

Subprogramme 2. Supporting human rights bodies and organs,

Activities

(a) Servicing of intergovernmental and expert bodies

(i) Substantive servicing of meetings: Committee on the Elimination of Racial Discrimination. One hundred and thirty meetings (60 in 1998 and 70 in 1999).

6. The additional costs entailed by the extension of the summer session of the Committee in 1999 would be as follows:

	United States dollars
Section 22. Human rights
Subsistence allowances for 18 members of the Committee:	33 200
Section 1B. Conference Services
Meeting servicing and interpretation	48 400
Pre-session documentation	48 600
Summary records	83 700
Post-session documentation	9 500
Other requirements	6 800
Total section 1B	197 000

7. The above estimates for conference-servicing are based on the assumption that no part of these requirements would be met from within the permanent conference-servicing capacity included under section 1B, General Assembly Affairs and Conference Services, of the programme budget for the biennium 1998–1999. The extent to which the Organization's permanent conference-servicing capacity would need to be supplemented by temporary assistance resources can be determined only in the light of the calendar of conferences and meetings for 1998–1999. Provision has, however, been made under section 1B of the programme budget for the biennium 1998–1999 not only for meetings programmed at the time of budget preparations but also for meetings which might be authorized subsequently, provided that the number and distribution of meetings and conferences are consistent with the pattern of meetings of past years. As a result, no additional appropriation would be required under section 1B of the programme budget.

III. Conclusions and recommendations

8. No resources have been included under section 22, Human rights, of the programme budget for the biennium 1998–1999 to cover the additional requirements of $33,200 for the subsistence allowance of the 18 members of the Committee. At this stage, it is not anticipated that these requirements could be absorbed within the provisions included under section 22 of the programme budget.

A. Contingency fund

9. It will be recalled that under the procedure established by the General Assembly in its resolutions 41/213 of 19 December 1986 and 42/211 of 21 December 1987, a contingency fund is established for each biennium to accommodate additional expenditures derived from legislative mandates not provided for in the proposed programme budget. Under this procedure, if additional expenditures are proposed that exceed the resources available from the contingency fund, the activities concerned can be implemented only through redeployment of resources from low-priority areas or modifications of existing activities. Otherwise, such additional activities will have to be deferred to a later biennium.

B. Action required by the General Assembly

10. No activities could be identified, at this stage, for termination, deferral, curtailment or modification under section 22, Human rights, of the programme budget for the biennium 1998–1999 in order to accommodate the additional requirements of $33,200 referred to above.

11. Should the General Assembly adopt draft resolution A/C.3/53/L.18/Rev.1, an additional provision of $33,200 would be required over and above the resources approved under section 22, Human rights, of the programme budget for the biennium 1998–1999. The additional requirements for the year 2000 would be dealt with in the context of the preparation of the proposed programme budget for the biennium 2000–2001.
